

Chazz Redhead STUDIOS

Personal Safety when using the Studio

Personal safety is paramount. As a studio run from a residential address, I want to do all I can to assure you that you will be safe, treated respectfully and feel comfortable to deliver your best performance.

This is why I want to assure you that:

I have a current DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service) Certificate. This demonstrates a criminal record check that allows me to work with children and vulnerable people. If you would like to see a copy of this in advance of our meeting, I am more than happy to share it with you.

You are welcome to bring a friend or chaperone with you. We have a second chair inside the studio, or a sofa in the edit suite where they will be able to sit while you record.

I have numerous positive public reviews which I hope demonstrate the professional service I deliver.
